FILM THIS!

A Behind-the-Scenes Digital Media Experience

On location @ The Reagan Library

Open to Juniors, Seniors and Recent High School Graduates

You are invited to apply to the Digital Media Experience at the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum. The Summer Media Institute application process is open to all interested incoming 11th and 12th grade high school students as well as recent graduates.

Accepted Applicants Will:

- Attend a one week Digital Media Experience at the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library and Museum
- Engage with rarely seen original artifacts, films, documents and photographs from the Reagan Library and Museum vaults
- Enjoy first-hand meetings and lectures with Reagan Library scholars, curators, and archivists
- Learn how to create a documentary film from a first-rate film teacher
- Create your own film which will be posted on all Reagan Library Social Media sites including YouTube and Facebook
- Become eligible for Reagan Library Film Festival
- Receive a Digital Media Experience certificate of course completion

Dates July 8-12 or July 22-26: | Only $250/student/week

Application Process:

Please submit all application materials via email to: reaganeducation@nara.gov

1. Write one paragraph explaining why you would like to participate in the Digital Media Experience.
2. Write one paragraph describing your experience with film and media.
3. Submit two letters of recommendation from school personnel including teachers, principal, etc.
4. If you have any film pieces to share, please include.
5. Please include which session you would prefer.