Dear Senator Baker:

Although we had looked forward to the possibility of working with you on our Japanese project, the challenges that lay ahead for you seem much more compelling in every sense. We are all pleased that the President has been able to attract a man of your stature at this most critical time.

We, at Salomon Brothers, wish you the best and I, personally, look forward to seeing you in the not too distant future.

Very truly yours,

Dear Howard:

It has been a long time since I have seen you, and I don't know whether you remember the name, but I, along with Allen Morgan, Jr., handled your Finance Committee when you ran for the Senate for Shelby County. I am also the founder of Cleo Wrap of Memphis.

I just wanted to write you to say how extremely pleased I am with your accepting your new position. You have had many outstanding achievements in your career, but I think the country owes you a permanent gratitude for doing this and giving up running for the presidency. I know you will be successful, as no one is better qualified than you to not only assist the President but to tremendously help with the relationship with Congress, as they all respect you.

Congratulations again, and I wish you the very best of luck.

Sincerely yours,

Charles L. Wurtzburger

Dear Howard:

My somewhat belated, but nonetheless enthusiastic, congratulations! I really enjoyed being your partner, even though it was not for nearly as long a time as I would have wished. There is no question that you have undertaken the most significant political challenge of our times. We all owe you a debt of gratitude.

I hope to see you soon in Washington and am really looking forward for your ultimate return to the firm.

My very best wishes to you and your family. You seem to be thriving on your new role, and your much heralded success is certainly deserved.

Dear Howard,

we are very glad of the news, that President Reagan appointed you to the CHIEF OF STAFF at THE WHITE HOUSE in Washington.

My family and I respectfully congratulated you on the entering upon office, certainly not a lightly but honorable charge on duty to the nation.

The television afforded us an opportunity to see you best getting into one's stride after years of political abstinence.

We might wish you good luck and we will hope in good politics for your and also our people.

With many kind regards to Joy and you

Sincerely

Dear Senator Baker:

Congratulations on your new appointment as Chief of Staff at the White House!

The President could not have selected a finer, more sensitive and dedicated person to help lead our country through a very difficult period. You have always supported me since my days at the Voter Education Project of Atlanta. I have always admired your work and political integrity.

I have been appointed as Manager of Community Relations at Middle South Services, Inc. in New Orleans. It is a great organization. Mr. Lupberger, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, is a dynamic and inspiring individual. I am enjoying myself very much.

Please give my regards to your lovely family and if I can be of any assistance to you, please let me know.

Take care and 'good luck', my friend!

Dear Senator Baker:

I am immensely pleased that you have accepted the appointment as Chief of Staff to President Reagan. It is commendable to sacrifice one's immediate goals for the good of the country.

When you and I were on our way to Mrs. Gandhi's cremation as members of the Presidential Delegation, you told me of your plans to run for the Presidency, and asked for my help in Illinois. At that time, I said that you had a lot of personal support in Illinois, and your connection with the Dirksen family was a great plus. I am sorry you are unable to come to Chicago this month because of your new appointment, for I wanted to speak to you about the tremendous amount of good will that you have built up in Illinois over these many years.

One never knows what the future will bring. Your new appointment could be what is needed for you to become a compromise candidate in 1988. I still plan to be a delegate to the Convention.

My very best wishes for your success in this new challenge. Best to Joy.

Sincerely,

Mary McDonald

Dear Mr. Baker:

On behalf of the Upsilon Chapter of Pi Kappa Phi, I would like to extend you congratulations on your recent appointment as President Reagan's chief-of-staff. Considering the recent difficulties the Reagan Administration has faced, the Upsilon Chapter wishes you success in your efforts to once again unify the Administration and effectively serve the President.

We also want to remind you that your success in government serves as a great example for Pi Kapps across the nation. Both during rush and member education, it is a privilege for us to use you as an example of how Pi Kapps can prepare a man for a leadership position. You are an alumnus who is definitely still contributing to your fraternity and we thank you for that.

Once again, we hope that you enjoy your new position and can accomplish everything that you wish. And hopefully someday, members of this chapter can also have an opportunity to make an impact on the United States.

fraternally yours,

David D. Kiefer
