Dear Senator Baker:

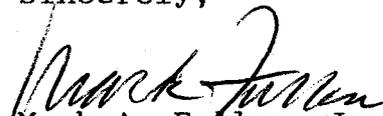

Personally and on behalf of my colleagues at Champion International Corporation, we are thrilled that you agreed to take the position as Chief of Staff at the White House.

I thoroughly enjoyed having the opportunity to talk with you when you addressed the API Meeting last year. Champion was glad to provide plane transportation to make this possible.

As you may know, there has been very little dialogue with manufacturing industry in the White House for too long a period of time. I would hope that when you are finally settled in, it would be possible for me to come to Washington and lay out for you our concerns as we listen to yours. I believe that a mutually beneficial relationship should have been established some time ago but wasn't with the Reagan Administration. Now we have a new opportunity.

Again, congratulations on coming through for your country and accepting a tough assignment under strained conditions. You have our gratitude and enthusiastic support!

Sincerely,

Mark A. Fuller, Jr.

DEAR HOWARD,

I AM SO DAMMED HAPPY TO SEE YOU BACK WHERE YOU SHOULD BE WITH YOUR EMBRACIVE AND CUMMULATIVE KNOWLEDGE OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. YOU HAVE ALWAYS BEEN THE BEST REGARDING ARBITRATION, MITIGATION AND NEGOTIATION DURING YOUR TENURE AS THE UNITED STATES SENATE MAJORITY LEADER. THE LATE DR. GEORGE T. NOVINGER, M.D. USED TO PRAISE YOU TO THE HEAVENS. HOWEVER, YOU MOST CERTAINLY HELPED US TO ACCOMPLISH AND MAKE POSSIBLE THE INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS ON NEOPLASTIC DISEASES AT THE GERMAN CANCER RESEARCH CENTER, HEIDELBERG, W. GERMANY, 1973.

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES FOR HELPING PRESIDENT REAGAN OUT! WHATEVER I MIGHT BE ABLE TO DO, PLEASE COUNT UPON ME, HOWARD. I AM SO HAPPY FOR YOU!

MY BEST REGARDS,

Dear Mr. Baker,

Thank heaven; someone was thinking straight for a change - I was so thrilled to know you were coming back to this beautiful city + into government service again - I know I will rest easier. Knowing someone who is really honest, sincere and working for the interest of this great country - I love this wonderful America and I know you do also -

In shops, grocery stores, on the street, all around, people are saying how happy and satisfied to have you in this most high and important position. Congratulations!

The last weeks have been rather heart-breaking. To think about another Watergate type situation is just sickening. My, who can be trusted - who can I vote for 2 years from now? Well, Mr. Baker -

keep your eyes on the big desk —
and chair in the oval office, you would look just great there — you have my vote

I am a 62 year old (divorced) Grandmother. I care what happens in the future for my daughter, husband & 2 grandchildren. My ex husband was from Tenn. — a great state —

I feel you are certainly the man of the hour. We need you — Welcome back — where you do belong! So much needs rebuilding — Much success to you —

My warmest and most sincere wishes for every success — all this seems so good — so right — God

Bless you —
