Dear Mr. Baker:

Thank you for sending President Reagan the January issue of Texas Business Magazine.

We thoroughly enjoyed seeing your son's publication. He has gathered a wealth of information in a precise and impressive report. I know it must be a valuable information source for all those who read it.

The President appreciates your taking the time to share your magazine with us. You can be sure we will make it available to the staff - especially the many Texans we have working here - for their review.

Dear Mr. Parker:

We wish to express our warmest appreciation and congratulations to you for the fine outstanding honor given you nationally and local for your great work as our Superintendent of Boise, Idaho schools this day in the Idaho Statesman. I also want to complement you on the fine work, enthusiasm, and sincerity you you will continue to show and thoroughly use for Idaho and the nation.

We know you are faced with tremendous educational problems at this period, but with your great knowledge and sincerity you will accomplish all of your goals for the betterment of everyone.

I wish to quote Emerson when he said, "SOMETHING HIGHER THAN HONESTY--The greatest success springs from a perfect understanding between sincere people." You with your fine knowledge and great enthusiasm carry our educational system on to greater heights for Treasure Valley and Idaho.

Having my teacher's degree at Albion Normal School, Albion, Idaho 1932, and working with educational colleges and schools with your fine principals and educators, we are happy to be of any service to help your cause for the good of educational purposes.

Living with knowledgeable and educational people and having my children graduate from the Boise High School System, I then watched them go on to their own successful businesses in other parts of the United States. It has been most inspiring to us having their foundation laid from wonderful inspirations and knowledge gained from their instructors and their fine ways of life.

Yes, Barney, we Idahoans are truly pleased with you as our Superintendent of the Boise School System. Your great knowledgeable thinking and kindness to help Idaho and its fine people to move forward.

Barney, you truly have a fine staff, lovely lady secretaries and fine gentlemen helping and working hard for the betterment of our great city and state.

President
Special for President and Mrs. Ronald Reagan. We were pleased to see and hear President Ronald Reagan and his health improved. His talk to the nation so very fine. Admitting mistakes that were made and his not knowing of the misplace of fifty million dollars. Lots of money to misplace. Idaho and the West could well use this money to help move the farmers and the nation forward.

Barney we are sure fortunate to have Cecil Andrus, Governor of Idaho and Dirk Kempthorne, Mayor of Boise. These gentlemen are great Educational Leaders of Idaho.

True Friends

There are many people
that we meet in our lives
but only a very few
will make a lasting impression
on our minds and hearts
It is these people that we will think of often
and who will always remain
important to us
as true friends

“Have you read any mysteries
lately?”

“Yes,” her friend said, “I’m reading one now.”

“What’s the title?”

don’t suppose I ever really appreciated little Jimmy’s teacher un-

Dear Senator Baker:

Just a brief note from one civil servant to another. I can't tell you how impressed I have been with your performance to date as White House Chief of Staff. You are a calm, reassuring presence in the recent months of turmoil in Washington. I had not known much about you prior to this, other than the frequent suggestion that you have Presidential ambitions. Your willingness to forego (or delay) those ambitions to do something more important for your party, your country and your President will do you more political good than you will ever realize among intelligent voters in this country. Unfortunately, we have far too few politicians in this country who pay any more than lip service to the words "civil servant".

Anyway, you have more important things to do than read letters all day. Just let me say in closing that you have become much more "presidential" in my mind now than before, and you have clearly distinguished yourself from other contenders, particularly Senator Dole who suffers (chronically) from the usual politician's symptoms - too much ambition and not enough humanity.

Good luck.

Sincerely,

John A. Olson

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MR. PRESIDENT — Lena Tunnell, perhaps the area's most loyal Ronald Reagan booster, used the window of her uniform shop in Upper Alton to send birthday greetings to the president, who is 76 today, a few years the storekeeper's junior. "You don't hear about all the good things that he does," said Mrs. Tunnell. In the past, she has boosted her favorite president with "Reagan Victory Sales," granting discounts when Reagan won a presidential primary, and a "Regain with Reagan" campaign.

Dear Mr Baker

I know you won't remember me.
But I will never forget you for the help and assistance you gave me and my son when we were trying to get him out of service in 1977.

After my husband's tragic death,
which left me all alone and trying to cope with his sudden death.

If it had not been for your help,
they would have sent him overseas,
and I don't think at that time I could have cope'd. with being all alone.
You helped us so much and there are no word to express how much I appreciate what you did and how much it meant to me to have

my son with me at that time.

I have never meet you in person,
But I will never forget you for all your consideration and help that you gave us.

My daughter and her husband are coming to Washington DC on their vacation on April 11. to bring my grandson. For he want's to see the Capitol and visit President Kennedy's grave and all the other things he is studying in school.

If things work out I hope to come with them to help look after my grandson when they want to do other thing that would not interest a child and made I will get to see you or at least
get a glimpse of you.
Thanks again for being so helpful and considerate.

Dear Senator Baker:

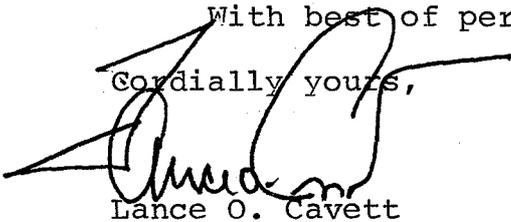

As a Tennessean, and a Republican; I just wanted to say how proud I am that you are a part of the White House, like so many Americans, I cannot help but feel that matters in Washington, and in the White House have taken a role of dignity, character, and effectiveness; with your coming on board.

Over the years, I've written you many times, I feel a real personal pride that you are taking the reins in the White House, and I would be remiss if I just frankly didn't say that '88 will be your year, and you can be elected as the President of the United States. We need to rebuild our party, and with the lose of Winfield Dunn in Tennessee as a governor which we could share a real pride in, Tennessee needs again, to lead the nation with good, honest leadership, Republican leadership, such as you.

I urge you not to rule of 1988 for the presidency. I'm a staunch supporter of our President. Time will prove that his endeavors were absent of any malice, and you have an open door to once again, serve Tennessee, and The United States, and the Republican Party!

With best of personal regards, I remain

Cordially yours,
