Dear Mr. Toulme:

Thank you for inviting me to address the Defense Credit Union Council's 28th annual educational conference on September 14 in Nashville.

I am well aware of the important work that is being done by the Defense Council. Through your association of 360 credit unions you are ably serving the needs of Defense personnel around the world. I salute your commitment at a time in our Nation's history when such endeavors are more important than ever.

Regrettably, the heavy demands of my schedule will prevent me from being with you in September. Please be assured that you have my best wishes for a most successful conference.

Dear Mr. Sanders:

Thank you for your letter concerning the sanctions against Japan announced by the President on March 27. As I'm sure you know, the tariffs the President promised -- as much as $300 million worth of Japanese exports -- have now taken effect. The President is committed to the full enforcement of our trade agreements, including the semiconductor agreement, and to ensuring that American industry has free and fair trade opportunities.

I am bringing your message to the attention of the Trade Representative for his information as well.

Dear Joe:

Thank you for your letter and for sending the Vote America Foundation's 1986 report.

Your work is truly inspiring. You do much to keep Americans aware of their unique set of rights and responsibilities and to assure that our nation's cherished democratic process continues to flourish. I am particularly impressed with your Youth Initiative project. Voter turnout among our youngest voters has lagged dramatically behind that of older voters. Your concentrated effort will do much to increase their participation, just as it decreases the level of disillusionment our youth sometimes experience. Thank you for reminding them, and all of us, what a difference it makes to live in this land of unparalleled freedom and opportunity.

I salute your efforts and send my best wishes for your continued success.

Dear Mr. Nahon:

Thank you for inviting me to attend the National Pachyderm Convention.

Regrettably, due to the heavy demands of my schedule,
I'm unable to accept the invitation. I appreciate the kindness of your offer, however, and wish you a most enjoyable and productive convention and forum.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Al:

Thanks for your message and the enclosed material. I certainly hope you enjoyed your tour through my home state, especially your address to the Joint Session of the Legislature. That's a rare privilege and a hard audience, but I see from your text that you were up to the occasion.

I appreciate your offer to join the BusCapade, but based on my "on-the-job" experience so far, I'm not optimistic I'll be able to take you up on it anytime soon. I do wish you and your staff a most enjoyable ride, however, as you continue your tour of the Nation.

Best wishes.

Dear Gene:

Thanks for your kind message. Your words of support are too generous -- but much appreciated.

I do regret having to step down from the Mayo Foundation Board, but feel privileged to have had the chance to serve with such a distinguished group.

I regret also that I'll be unable to attend the Scottsdale dedication in June, as I will be with the President at that time during his trip to Europe. I appreciate the kindness of your offer, however, and I trust the dedication will be truly memorable.

Warm regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Archbishop Iakovos:

Thank you for your thoughtful message. I am grateful for its inspiration and especially for your prayerful support.

This is indeed a season of great joy, a time for all of us to reflect anew on Christ's profound message of peace and love for one another, and on the great hope of His Resurrection.

Please accept my appreciation for your Easter remembrance, and my best wishes to all who are in your pastoral care.

Sincerely,
