CORRESPONDENCE, WHITE HOUSE OFFICE OF: MAIL ANALYSIS: Records, 1981-1989

This collection is a unit of the White House Office of Correspondence. The Library is treating this unit as a separate collection.

Mail Analysis was one of the major functions in the Correspondence Office. This unit analyzed the content of all incoming correspondence to determine counts on subject matter, support or complaints received via the mail. Analysts also assigned response form letters (known as ROBO letters) depending on the incoming subject, or transferred material for response from an agency, and/or needs for a Presidential message or a special response letter. The outgoing Robo letters are contained within the Office of Correspondence records as part of Series I-IV.

This office was supervised by Lillie Bell for the entire term of the Reagan administration. We have assigned most of the material concerning this function to this office. The Library also has a small collection for Bell.

This collection is arranged in eight series: SERIES I: Major Issues Mail – Annual Tallies; SERIES II: Major Issues Mail – Final/Weekly Tally Sheets; SERIES III: Major Issues Mail – Daily Tally Sheets; SERIES IV: Major Issues Mail – Specific Issues; SERIES V: Analyst Activity Reports; SERIES VI: Analysis Daily Statistics; SERIES VII: Daily Unit Reports and Distribution; and SERIES VIII: Bulk Referral Mail

PRELIMINARY SERIES DESCRIPTION

SERIES I: MAJOR ISSUES MAIL – ANNUAL TALLIES, 1981-1988

This series consists of material related to annual subject tallies for incoming mail. It was originally kept by year for 1981-1983. From 1984-1988, the office created a half-year and full year tally. It is arranged chronologically.

SERIES II: MAJOR ISSUES MAIL – FINAL/WEEKLY TALLY SHEETS, 1981-1989

This series consists of material related to the weekly subject tallies for incoming mail. The office designated these items as “final” tally sheets for 1981-1984 and after that as “weekly” tally sheets. Up to September 1984 the “final” tally sheets reported various, usually multi-week intervals and often contained hand-written notations. Tally sheets specifically identified as weekly sheets were in use after September 1984 reporting on one week. Each weekly sheet usually had individual daily sheets for that week associated with it. With further computerization of the office functions the daily sheets were no longer kept with the weekly tally starting sometime in 1986. The Library has made available for research use the final/weekly tally sheets for 1981-1984 for some time. Currently these are listed as Boxes 1-4 in this series, but this will change when the collection is made available in whole.

SERIES III: MAJOR ISSUES MAIL – DAILY TALLY SHEETS

This series consists of material related to the daily tally of incoming subjects/concerns within mail received at the White House. The files consist of the individual sheets showing mail breakdown on major issues and statistics were collected by day. The Library has made available for research use the daily tally sheets for 1981-1984 for some time. Currently these are listed as Box 1-41 in this series, but this will change when the collection is made available in whole.

SERIES IV: MAJOR ISSUES MAIL – SPECIFIC ISSUES

This series consists of material related to special form tally sheets for a small group of special issues. The special issues forms were used more in the second administration and focus on issues active at that time, like tax reform and sanctions against South Africa.

SERIES V: ANALYST ACTIVITY REPORTS

This series consists of material related to the actual work of each analyst. The reports show the disposition of mail handled monthly. It is organized by categories for agency referrals, reply processing, reply processing, processing, greetings, special reply, White House staff, unanswerable and other. Categories shifted with changing needs during the administration. The reports were kept by month.

SERIES VI: ANALYSIS DAILY STATISTICS

This series consists of material related to the daily summary of actual work for each analyst. It is organized by categories for agency referrals, reply processing, processing, greetings, special reply, White House staff, unanswerable and other. In 1982 a daily form was added that showed the individual job assignments for each of the analysts

SERIES VII: DAILY UNIT REPORTS AND DISTRIBUTION

This series consists of material related to the reports by units of analysts for the Mail Analysis office. At the start of the administration the analysts were organized by unit and reports were kept for each. This organization by unit was abandoned by July 1983. The report indicates distribution of incoming mail and was kept by quarter

SERIES VIII: BULK REFERRAL MAIL

This series consists of daily and two-week summaries of mail referred to other government agencies for response. The statistics are distributed by the referral agency. The reports for 1980-1982 contain the two week summary reports and daily reports. Starting in 1983, the reports cover just the two-week periods. 1981-1982 and 1989 material from this series has been made available for research use. The material from 1980 covers open issues with agencies across the transition from the Carter administration to the Reagan administration.
