DRUG FREE AMERICA, WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE FOR A: Records, 1987-1988

The 1986 Anti-Drug Abuse Act called for the President to establish a national conference to share drug-abuse prevention methods, make the public aware of the extent of the problem and focus on solutions and parental involvement. It was established by Executive Order on May 5, 1987. The conference included six regional meetings held in late 1987 and a national conference held from February 28, 1988-March 3, 1988. This collection consists of records regarding the White House sponsored conference. Records are mostly from the Chairwoman, Lois Harrington and various projects run in conjunction with the conference.
