November 1987 - David Frost - Interviewer David Frost talks to the President and the President mentions Mrs. Reagan. The article played in several newspapers and magazines (New York Times, U.S. News & World Report, People, etc.)

12/17/1987 - Associated Press - End of the Year Interview by Susanne Schafer (Mostly about Mrs. Reagan's difficulties in 1987)

12/17/1987 - United Press International - End of the Year Interview by Helen Thomas (Mostly about Mrs. Reagan's difficulties in 1987)

December 1987 - The Washington Post - Article by Donnie Radcliffe Entitled "The Dark Year of Nancy Reagan" about her difficulties in 1987 (Her breast surgery and her mother's passing)

Voice Magazine (VOA) December 1987/January 1988

Bagby's Health Digest - Statement from Mrs. Reagan on how she stays in shape

Daily Bruin - UCLA's Student Newspaper and Mrs. Reagan's Op-Ed Piece, "The Need for Intolerance" (Originally for the Washington Post) was sent

Redbook Magazine - "President Reagan's Favorite Macaroni and Cheese" recipe and a brief statement on their private dining at home was sent. If the article was published, we never received it or saw it

Worldnet - USIA Publication - Mrs. Reagan's Op-Ed Piece "The Need for Intolerance" (Originally for the Washington Post) was sent

America's Plant Doctor - Interview Request from Dr. Ellen T. Henke to tour the White House Grounds with Irv Williams, the Executive Grounds Superintendent. The interview was granted, and Irv took Dr. Henke around the grounds but she never sent an article of any kind about the tour

Redbook Magazine - Redbook was doing a story called "The Best of Everything" and asked Mrs. Reagan for her comments on the most influential women in American history. Mrs. Reagan chose not to submit an answer, but this file contains background information on this request

Woman's Day Magazine - Woman's Day originally requested a telephone interview with Mrs. Reagan for the 50th Anniversary Issue on changing attitudes toward food in America. Mrs. Reagan was not able to do the phone interview but did submit a written piece answering the question

- Family Circle Magazine - Interview Request about the Role of the First Lady. The interview request was turned down, but we sent Mrs. Reagan's remarks to the Associated Press Publishers' Luncheon, 05/04/1987. Her remarks were on the role of First Lady
- Historic Preservation Magazine - Request for a "Vignette" from Mrs. Reagan on her most memorable experience that ties in with the architectural or cultural heritage of Washington, D.C. Mrs. Reagan wrote a piece on the day her husband took the Oath of Office on the steps of the Capital
- Fred Barnes / Reader's Digest - There is nothing in this file except Mrs. Reagan's Drug Kit (as of July 1987), Mrs. Reagan's biography, and a note from Elaine Crispen saying to put this information in a file called "Fred Barnes / Reader's Digest article"
- Artistic Ambassador Program - A Request from the Director of USIA's Artistic Ambassador Program for a specific photograph of Mrs. Reagan with two "Artistic Ambassadors" musicians to be used in a USIA promotional booklet about the program
- Ladies Home Journal - Photos were sent to LHJ for an article on "The Most Stylish Women in America"
- McDonald's Management News - Mrs. Reagan responded to a very short, written Q&A about Youth Drug Abuse and her impressions of Camp Ronald McDonald
- Food and Nutrition Magazine - Mrs. Reagan sent a letter commending the Food and Nutrition Service on their contribution to the "Just Say No" to drugs message
- House & Garden Magazine - There is nothing in this file except the original request to photograph rooms on State Floor and the private residence for use in an article on different Presidential lifestyles beginning with President Dwight D. Eisenhower. There is also a note from Elaine Crispen to Mrs. Reagan asking her to approve photos, but there are no photos in the file
- Country Magazine - Interview Request for a Christmas portrait of the President and Mrs. Reagan. Although the interview was turned down we did send biographies and several Christmas photos
- Woman's Own Magazine - An English Magazine that requested information on how the Reagans spent Christmas. We sent photos and a recipe for Monkey Bread and answered specific questions he had by phone
- Jack Lewis - A free-lance Writer who sent Mrs. Reagan some questions about Mrs. Reagan's godmother, Alla Nazimova. We did not submit answers to him.
