Political Affairs Directorate, NSC: Director Inter-American Affairs
Latin American Affairs Directorate, NSC: Director

Roger W. Fontaine was assigned to the National Security Council in February, 1981 to support the day-to-day tasks involving U.S. national security policy for Latin America. Before his assignment to the NSC, Mr. Fontaine served as Visiting Scholar at the American Enterprise Institute from 1980 to 1981. From 1974 to 1980, Mr. Fontaine was Director of Latin American Studies at Georgetown University's Center for Strategic and International Studies. He was a Contract Researcher for the American Enterprise Institute and for the Institute for Defense Analysis from 1973 to 1974. From 1972 to 1973, Mr. Fontaine was a researcher for the Washington Center for Foreign Policy Research. Mr. Fontaine was Professor of Political Science at Middlebury College from 1969 to 1972. Prior to 1969, Mr. Fontaine was a researcher for the Department of State (1968-1969); Resources for the Future (1967); Washington Center for Foreign Policy Analysis (1966-1967); Research Analysis Corporation (1966); and the American University (1965). Mr. Fontaine is currently on the faculty of the Institute of World Politics in Washington, DC.

Mr. Fontaine earned a B.A. degree in 1963 from Valparaiso University. He went on to Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies where he earned a M.A. in 1965 and a Ph. D. in 1970. Mr. Fontaine has published numerous books and monographs, including Latin America: Struggle for Progress; U.S.-Cuban Relations: A New, New Look; Terrorism: The Cuban Connection; and Central America: A Political Strategic Assessment. His articles have appeared in The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times; The Christian Science Monitor, Strategic Review, and Foreign Policy.

The Office of Political Affairs included offices with the responsibility for various geographic regions. Under the old Office of Political Affairs, Roger Fontaine worked in the Inter-American Affairs Office. These regional responsibilities were later revised and elevated to directorates. Mr. Fontaine's position was incorporated within the Latin American Affairs Directorate. His collection consists of his two offices combined. It consists of six series, and includes memoranda, cable, and correspondence relating to Central and South America

SERIES I: SUBJECT FILE (15 l.ft., RAC Boxes 1-13)

This series consists of subject files on countries or topics. With a few exemptions such as Afghanistan, Poland, and South Africa, the memoranda and correspondence within the files deal with Caribbean, Central and South American countries. Subjects covered within the series include the Caribbean Basin Initiative, the Falkland Islands, the Panama Canal, and other issues involving the Caribbean or Central and South America. The subject files also include files on organizations interested in Central and South American affairs such as the Council of the Americas, the Organization of American States, the Overseas Development Council, the Overseas Private Investment Corporation and Partners of the Americas. They are arranged alphabetically by subject or country, then by date.

SERIES II: CHRONOLOGICAL FILE (4.6 l.ft., RAC Boxes 14-17)

This series consists of official correspondence files maintained by Fontaine. A note dated in 1983 indicates January 1981 chron files were not found. The documents and casefiles in the folders for February, March, April and May, 1981 were originally arranged in numerical order by document number, with a document list at the beginning of the folder. To standardize the arrangement and account for unnumbered documents in the folders, all documents are arranged in chronological order by date of document or casefile. Included in the chronological file are monthly reports from March to December 1981 and weekly reports from February 1981 to November 1983. Staff members were asked to submit weekly and monthly reports to their department head highlighting their major accomplishments and actions.

SERIES III: CABLE FILE (2 l.ft., RAC Boxes 17-18)

This series consists of a cable file maintained by Fontaine. The cables are arranged alphabetically by country and then in chronological order. Most of the cables are from 1982, although there are some earlier from 1981 and go to the beginning of 1983. There are some memoranda located in this series.

SERIES IV: STATE VISITS AND TRIPS FILE (1.5 l.ft., RAC Boxes 18-19)

This series consists of memoranda and correspondence regarding state visits by Central and South American foreign heads of state and trips to Central or South America taken by President Reagan. Also included are cables regarding Ambassador-at Large Richard Stone's mission to Central America during the summer and fall of 1983. The files are arranged chronological by the date of the visit or trip.

SERIES V: MEETING NOTEBOOK FILE (1.5 l.ft., RAC Boxes 19-20)

This series consists of four notebooks, containing handwritten meeting notes taken during trips to Central and South America from June 1983-September 1983. The notebooks are identified by the date span of the meetings. The notebooks covering the August and September 1983 coincide with Fontaine's trip to Central America with Ambassador-at-Large Richard Stone.

SERIES VI: ADMINISTRATIVE/PERSONAL FILE (1.5 l.ft. RAC Boxes 20-21)

This series consists of personal correspondence, administrative memoranda, and forms maintained by Fontaine. They deal with Fontaine's speaking engagements, financial disclosure statements and travel.
