Material noted in bold within this collection is currently available for research use. If a folder is available for research use it may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act restrictions. Most frequent withdrawn material is national security classified material, personal privacy, protection of the President, etc. Any non-bolded folder is closed for research.

The non-bolded folders are subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

If you are interested in submitting a FOIA request for access to any of the unavailable records or have any questions about these collections or series, please contact our archival staff at 1-800-410-8354, outside the US at 1-805-577-4012, or email reagan.library@nara.gov.

GUHIN, MICHAEL A.: Files, 1981-84

Planning and Evaluation Directorate, NSC

Dr. Michael Guhin was put on special detail from the Department of State to the National Security Council in May 1981. While at the NSC, Dr. Guhin was Director of Global Issues, including U.S. non-proliferation policy; international nuclear energy affairs, Law of the Sea (LOS), seabeds, and fisheries; international environmental, pollution, and narcotics matters; refugees and immigration; United Nations political affairs; and polar affairs.

Dr. Guhin served as Director of the Office of Non-Proliferation and Export Policy in the Department of State from 1978 until his assignment to the NSC. From 1976 to 1978, he served as Assistant Director for Export-Import and International Safeguards at the Nuclear Regulatory Commission. He served as a member of the NSC staff, from 1969 through 1975, during the Nixon and Ford administrations, dealing with international nuclear and arms controls affairs. In 1975 Dr. Guhin was on leave as a Council Research Fellow at the Washington Center for Foreign Policy Research (John Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies), in conjunction with a project at the American Enterprise Institute.

Dr. Guhin earned a B.A. (summa cum Laude) in political science from the University of Southern California in 1962. He received an M.A. in political science from the University of Southern California in 1964. In 1967, he received a PhD in international politics from the London School of Economics and Political Science. Dr. Guhin wrote John Foster Dulles: A Statesman and His Times, published by Columbia University Press in 1972. He has written numerous articles on U.S. foreign affairs matters, including a monograph Nuclear Paradox: Security Risks of the Peaceful Atom, published by the American Enterprise Institute in 1976.

SERIES I: SUBJECT FILES (6.7 l.ft.; RAC Boxes 1-6)

This series consists of files dealing with a variety of issues and subjects considered to be global in scope. The files are arranged in alphabetical order by subject and include memoranda, correspondence, papers, and reports. The majority of the files deal with Law of the Sea issues, nuclear energy and non-proliferation, refugees and immigration, and the United Nations and its various sub-components. Other files cover the international use of the Antarctic and Arctic, the environment, and international organizations.

SERIES II: CHRONOLOGICAL FILES (7.5 l.ft., RAC Boxes 6-12)

This series consists of correspondence files maintained by Dr. Guhin. The documents and casefiles were originally arranged by month, then in numerical order by document number, with a document list at the beginning of each month. The documents have been re-arranged in chronological order, with the document list in the first folder of each month.

SERIES III: COUNTRY FILES (2 l.ft., RAC Boxes 12-14)

This series consists of files dealing with issues relating to specific countries. The files are arranged in alphabetical order by country and chronologically in each folder. The files include cables, reports and memoranda.
