

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON PRODUCTIVITY: Records, 1982-1983 – REAGAN LIBRARY COLLECTIONS

Material noted in bold within this collection is currently available for research use. If a folder is available for research use it may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act restrictions. Most frequent withdrawn material is national security classified material, personal privacy, protection of the President, etc. Any non-bolded folder is closed for research.

The non-bolded folders are subject to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

If you are interested in submitting a FOIA request for access to any of the unavailable records or have any questions about these collections or series, please contact our archival staff at 1-800-410-8354, outside the US at 1-805-577-4012, or email reagan.library@nara.gov.

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON PRODUCTIVITY: Records, 1982-1983

The following material appears to document the year-long process preceding the actual Conference, held during September, 1983 in Washington, DC. The Conference had Washington, DC offices with a staff director - Steve Skancke. The principal coordinator on the White House side was Rodger B. Porter. In addition, the material covers some of the work relating four preparatory conferences held at Duke University, St. Louis University, University of San Diego, and Carnegie-Mellon Institute.
