QUINT, MARY ELIZABETH: Files, 1981–1983

Public Liaison, White House Office of (Women, Consumer Affairs)

Mary Elizabeth Quint was a longtime consumer affairs and women's advocate who was President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs from 1978 to 1980. She joined the White House staff on April 13, 1981 as a Deputy Special Assistant to the President. She worked as an assistant to Virginia Knauer, the consumer affairs specialist whose position was at that time within the Office of Public Liaison. When Wendy Borchardt joined the White House staff as the Reagan Administration's first Special Assistant for Women (September 1981), Quint began working with her as well. Quint moved to the women's portfolio full time after Dee Jepsen replaced Borchardt in August 1982. She left the White House staff in June 1983.

As the 1982 and 1984 elections approached, polls indicated that the "gender gap" from the 1980 Presidential campaign still existed. Women remained less likely than men to support Ronald Reagan on a wide range of issues, including war and peace matters, economic policy, and "women's issues" such as the Equal Rights Amendment and abortion. To help counteract this trend, a number of Public Liaison staff people worked on outreach to women, either as their primary function or adding it as a part of their work with other advocacy and policy groups.

One of the center pieces of this outreach to women strategy during the Reagan administration was the "50 States Project." This was a campaign to work with states in enacting legislation guaranteeing women's civil rights. It was intended as a "federalist" pro-active position against enacting the Equal Rights Amendment. Ms. Quint worked extensively on this project while at the White House.

The Quint collection is divided into six series: SERIES I: Subject File I; SERIES II: Subject File II; SERIES III: Events; SERIES IV: Organizations; SERIES V: Correspondence; SERIES VI: Weekly Activity Reports.

SERIES I: SUBJECT FILE I, 1981-1983

Quint's collection contained two distinct subject files boxed separately and sent separately to

White House Records Management. It was not readily apparent why they were separated (i.e. date, subject matter), so the Reagan Library decided to maintain the two subject files as separate series. Subject File I is more focused on women's issues, but is not completely limited to this topic. Material is arranged alphabetically.

SERIES II: SUBJECT FILE II, 1981-1983

Subject File II is larger than Series I and broader in scope, although it still contains many references to women's issues. There is some small duplication of folders between the two subject files, but we have maintained the original order and not integrated these duplicate folders. It is arranged alphabetically.

SERIES III: EVENTS, 1981-1983

This series contains material about events attended by Ms. Quint. It also includes speech invitations declined or cancelled. It is arranged chronologically.

SERIES IV: ORGANIZATIONS, 1981-1983

This series contains material about various organizations, primarily focused on women's issues and consumer issues. The folders consist of completed information sheets sent out by the Office of Public Liaison and returned by the organizations. It is arranged alphabetically.

SERIES V: CORRESPONDENCE, 1981-1983

This series consists of chronological files and correspondence divided by the receiver – Departments/Agencies, Individuals and States.

SERIES VI: WEEKLY ACTIVITY REPORTS

This series consists of reports given to the Director of the White House Office of Public Liaison from Quint regarding women's issues advocacy, 50 States Project and consumer advocacy actions taken in the past week. This series also contains some minutes from staff meetings.
