RAUL, ALAN CHARLES: Files, 1986-1988

Counsel to the President, Office of

Mr. Raul was born in the Bronx section of New York City in 1954. In 1975, he graduated magna cum laude from Harvard University with a B.A. degree. He then enrolled in Harvard's Kennedy School of Government, graduating in 1977 with a Master of Public Administration degree. After attending Columbia University School of Law for a year, he transferred to Yale Law School and earned a J.D. degree. In 1981, he was hired as an associate in the New York City law firm DeBevoise & Plimpton.

Raul joined the Reagan White House staff in 1986. In early 1987 he held a temporary assignment as an assistant to White House Special Counsel David Abshire. Mr. Abshire had come to the White House staff in the aftermath of the Iran-Contra affair, to advise the White House on legal issues pertaining to Iran-Contra.

In 1988, Raul left the White House staff to serve as OMB General Counsel.

When Raul left the White House, he passed on much of his work to fellow Assistant Counsel Dean McGrath. For more Raul work product please see the Dean McGrath collection, especially any folder dealing with ongoing litigation.

The following list of files is a result of an arrangement done by the Library in 2002.
