THERE IS NO LIMIT TO WHAT A MAN CAN DO OR WHERE HE CAN GO
IF HE DOESN'T MIND WHO GETS THE CREDIT

10/23/81

Hi Kathy:

I used a few lines from this poem,
ONCE BY THE PACIFIC by Robert Frost
in a roast message today for Barry Goldwater.

You'll probably never get asked about it. But, just in case, here's the whole poem. The lines I used are in yellow.

FYI...

Dodie

The trees that have it in their pent-up buds
To darken nature and be summer woods —
Let them think twice before they use their powers
To blot out and drink up and sweep away
These flowery waters and these watery flowers
From snow that melted only yesterday.

Once by the Pacific

The shattered water made a misty din.
Great waves looked over others coming in,
And thought of doing something to the shore
That water never did to land before.
The clouds were low and hairy in the skies,
Like locks blown forward in the gleam of eyes.
You could not tell, and yet it looked as if
The shore was lucky in being backed by cliff,
The cliff in being backed by continent;
It looked as if a night of dark intent
Was coming, and not only a night, an age.
Someone had better be prepared for rage.
There would be more than ocean-water broken
Before God's last Put out the Light was spoken.

Acquainted with the Night

I have been one acquainted with the night.
I have walked out in rain — and back in rain.
I have outwalked the furthest city light.

I have looked down the saddest city lane.
I have passed by the watchman on his beat
And dropped my eyes, unwilling to explain.

I have stood still and stopped the sound of feet
When far away an interrupted cry
Came over houses from another street,

But not to call me back or say good-by;
And further still at an unearthly height
One luminary clock against the sky

Proclaimed the time was neither wrong nor right.
I have been one acquainted with the night.

The Lovely Shall Be Choosers

The Voice said, "Hurl her down!"

The Voices, "How far down?"

"Seven levels of the world."

"How much time have we?"

"Take twenty years.

She would refuse love safe with wealth and honor!
The lovely shall be choosers, shall they?
Then let them choose!"

"Then we shall let her choose?"

"Yes, let her choose.

Take up the task beyond her choosing."

Invisible hands crowded on her shoulder
In readiness to weigh upon her.
But she stood straight still,
In broad round earrings, gold and jet with pearls,
And broad round suchlike brooch,
Her cheeks high-colored,
Fond and the pride of friends.

The voice asked, "You can let her choose?"

"Yes, we can let her and still triumph."

"Do it by joys, and leave her always blameless.

Be her first joy her wedding,
That though a wedding,
Is set — well, something they know, he and she.
And after that her next joy
That though she grieves, her grief is secret:
These friends know nothing of her grief to make it shameful.

Alex Solzhenitsyn

"At one time there was no comparison between the strength of the U.S.S.R. and yours. Then it became equal to yours. Soon it will be 2 to 1 - then 3 to 1; finally it will be 5 to 1 and it is fully determined to destroy your society."

"Am. is savouring the ~~the~~ ~~meas.~~ of ~~her~~ ~~old~~ with easy nonchalance. But presently there will come a time when she'll be surprised to find herself grown old - a country crowded, strained, perplexed. When she will be obligated to fall back upon her conservatism - obliged to pull herself together, adopt a new regimen of life, husband her resources, concentrate her strength, steady her methods, ~~also~~ ~~her~~ ~~views~~, restrict her vagaries, trust her best not her average members."

"The budget should be balanced, the treasury should be refilled, the pub. debt should be reduced, the arrogance of officialdom should be tempered & controlled, assistance to foreign lands should be curtailed lest Rome become bankrupt. The mob should be forced to work & not depend on govt. for subsistence"

Notes - ARTHUR HROCK "MEMOIRS" (ISSUED 1910) (JUDGE 82) (S. GORTALS)

As a (Wash.) eye witness of governmental and other public action through the years I ^{formed} an opinion that the U.S. wants the dubious distinction of having ^{discarded} its past & its meaning in one of the briefest ^{space's} of mod.
hist.

Among the changes are - fiscal solvency & conf. in a state & driven from the Nat. & foreign int'l. place by continuous deficit spending, easy credit, & growing unfavorable balance of payments in the entire national ledger of the U.S.; the free int'l. syst. abandoned by org's. & a govt. managed ec.; the govt. transformed into a WF st.
subsidized from Wash; & special generations young & old had to expect the govt. to provide for all their wants, free of any of the reqs. of responsible citizenship.

QUOTE - HENRY MARSHAL.

"Out of the ghetto comes an Al Smith, Eddie Cantor, Sam Levinson, Joe Louis, Babe Ruth, & a million others. They just couldn't understand that they didn't have a chance. They just couldn't be stopped from using disadvantages as advantages. They knew intuitively what Confucius had said; 'That defeat was not getting knocked down - but in not getting up.'"

HEATH - P.M. ENG: "A generation has grown up with unthinking & uncritical acceptance of the ^{notion} notion that Can man can get something for nothing?

ANON. QUOTE:

"The real Am. idea is not that every man shall be on a level with every other, but that every man shall have the liberty without hindrance to be what God made him. The office of govt. is not to confer happiness but to give men the opp. to work out happiness for themselves."

ANON. QUOTE

"The free man knows that certain things are unworthy of him. The ungrateful man will use any means however degraded in his restless desire for power."

LETTER (QUOTE) -- WOMAN -- FLED FROM POLAND. (NAT. MAG.)

"Among ^{some} of our Am. born friends it is not fashionable to be enthusiastic about Am. There is V.N., drugs, union & racial conflict, Pov. & Pollution. Undoubtedly this country faces urgent & serious problems. But we newcomers see not only the facts, but also Amer. solutions being sought & applied. I love Am. because people accept me for what I am. They don't question my ancestry, my faith, my feel. beliefs. When I want to move from one place to another I don't have to ask permission. When I need a medic

I go to the nearest store & get one. I don't have to stand in line for hours to buy a ^{piece} of tough fat meat. Even with inflation I don't have to pay a day's earnings for a small chicken.

I love Am. because Am. trusts me. I don't have to show an identity card to buy a pair of shoes. My mail isn't censored, my phone isn't tapped, my conversation with friends isn't reported to the secret police.

MONTESQUIEU 1748 -

Analyzed 3 forms of govt. - each has a special relationship to it's people. When that relationship changes that form of govt. is ^{doomed} doomed.

- 1 Dictatorship - Fear (cant survive if people love fear)
- 2 Monarchy - Respect & Affection for the crown.
3. Rep. Govt. - Must be virtue among the people.

✓ PATRICK HENRY: said certain precepts had been instilled in him by his Uncle - "To be true & just in all ~~his~~ my dealings. To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart. To keep my hands from fucking & stealing. Not to covet other man's goods but to learn & labor truly to get my own living & to do my duty in that station of life unto which it shall please God to call me."

JOHN ADAMS - Signing of Dec. of Ind. - A. Lincoln

✓ "Sink or swim, live or die, survive or perish, I give my hand and my heart to this vote. It is true that in the beginning we aimed not at independence, but there is a destiny divinity that thenceforth ends.

I know the uncertainties of human affairs but I see through this days business. We may die, die as colonists; die slaves; die it may be on the scaffold. Be it so. But while I live, let me have a country, or at least the hope of a country, and that a free country. But what ever be our fate, be assured, that this Declaration will stand. ... all that I have, and all that I own and all that I hope to be in life I am now ready to stake upon it; and I leave off as I began, that live or die, survive or perish, I am for the Declaration."

POEM (GROSS)

The snow was blowing out of doors - the drifts were piling high, and I could see pedestrians as they were passing by.

The faces of my Irish friends came dimly through the glass, as they trudged the icy streets to worship at their mass.

I watched a while, went back to bed and craved safe & sound as they braved these icy blasts on a sacred duty bound.

I envy them their strength of heart & faith that they possess, but on an ice cold Sunday morn it's good to be a few.

JAMES MCGERKOR BURNS PROF. GOV. WIS. COLLEGE ON GEN. AFF. LIFE.
BOOK "UNCERTAIN SENSE"

The way in which Am. live, the ^{quality} qual. of Am. life is the most important aspect of Am. Foreign Policy today. The U.S. & above all the open way in which we have faced our ^{ial} social & economic problems. has been the most impressive and influential aspect of Am. ~~foreign~~ foreign policy not only in dealing with the Sov. U. but in our relations with other peoples in the world. This has little to do with Am.
security it has much to do with the moral worth of the Am. ^{General Society} soc. & the standard it could set for the world The Am. Dec. of Independence is ^{often} cited & copied throughout the emerging countries. Its precepts have proved contagious.

At the very least American world leadership should be act as not to dishonor the ideas it has given to the world; at the most, it should act so as to help make them a reality. But paradoxically this cannot be forced upon others; each people must make its own independence, achieve its own lib. & equality."

PME H'CRACKEN

It is interesting to speculate what ^{Outer Space} might happen if a delegation from the SA Dept. of U. of C. in space were asked to fly around this planet & see if they could sort out the planned & unplanned sectors. They would in fact just get them sorted out; but they might well have the labels on the 2 lists divided. Of course the so-called unplanned sec. aren't unplanned at all. They rely on an extremely sophisticated ^{System} of planning reflected in the mechanisms & insts. of the unit to organize ec. activity & to generate material progress.

* "C. Pub. debt." If we carry the anth. of projected savings flows & funds financing in '75 to its logical end, we arrive at the interesting conclusion that the savings stream might well fall some what short of what will then be required for financing?

* I, however, tend to ignore these financial questions, but pressures in the ^{Capital} markets.
during the last few years remind us about the need to bring together savings & investment, or savers & borrowers in an orderly way through the Cap. mkt.

THE GREAT SEAL OF THE U.S.

"This capitalism - that system, born of the slave trade & centuries of slavery, of child labor & the abuse of ^{WOMEN} women, of contempt for those who labor & produce, with its adoptions of male through its politicians & its pressmen, dares to lecture the world of socialism about morality & human rights. This system, ^{with} its greed, and through its stems and closed circuits, its

Communism. - WBIR TV EDIT. - NEW WORLD NEWS - 1946

For those who insist Communism is not involved in the chaos presently afflicting our nation, we respectfully request that they consider some of the Ash rules for revolution. These are not new rules but a reprint of a document obtained by allied forces in Düsseldorf Germany in 1918 in which the Comins. outlined their plan for bringing about a revolution. Listen to these rules and ask yourself if anything sounds familiar.

1: Corrupt the young. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial; destroy their ruggedness. 2: Get control of all means of publicity, thereby getting peoples minds off their govt. by focusing their attention on athletics, ~~by keeping on continuous~~ ~~repetition of propaganda~~. Sexy lyrics, fairy's & other trivialities. 3: Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance. 4! Destroy the peoples faith in their national leaders by holding them up to contempt & ridicule. 5! Always ^{Preach} ~~preach~~ true democracy but seize ^{power} as fast and as ruthlessly as possible. 6! By encouraging govt. extravagance destroy it's credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent. 7! Promote unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders & foster a spirit of latent attack on the part of govt. toward such disorders. 8! By specious argument cause breakdown of moral virtues, honesty, sobriety, continence, faith in the pledged word. And finally cause the registration of fire arms on some pretext with a view of confiscating them and leaving the pop. helpless.

ridicule

Way back in 1918 - brightening isn't it?
