Dear Sir:

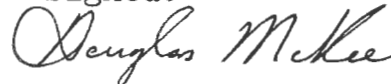

I have just read an article in the New Haven Register newspaper (this date) dealing with the announcement of a Holocaust Museum. I am livid with outrage.

So much money and manpower is already being wasted in America on blatant fraud i.e. NASA and the phony space program, the IRS and assorted welfare programs. Now the decent and productive American is being asked to pick up at least part of the tab to memorialize something which had nothing to do with America and involved a race of people alien to our shores and our culture. This is simply inexcusable.

I further submit that government money funding a distinctly Jewish project is in violation of the Constitution regarding separation of church and state. By doing this, you are, in effect, endorsing the Jews, their religion and far worse, their specious claims to world history.

If holy martyrdom is so important to you, then why don't we build a memorial to the millions of White Christians who died at the hands of the Bolsheviks? I'll just bet you have no answer for that.

Signed:

Douglas McKee
