Dear Mrs. Middlebrooks:

Thank you for your recent letter regarding the President's appointment of Judge ~~Sandra O'Connor~~ to be an Associate Justice to the Supreme Court.

The President chose Judge O'Connor because of her distinguished judicial career after careful evaluation and an investigation conducted by the Attorney General. The President personally met and interviewed Judge O'Connor and is convinced she shares his views on social issues. You will find, after careful review, that some misleading statements have been made about her distinguished career. Please know that I will always be most interested in your comments and thoughts.

Sincerely,

EDWIN MEESE III

The Honorable Edwin Muese, III
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington D.C., 20500

Dear Mr. Muese,

I am writing you because I admire your integrity and ability to represent the President.
Presently, I am very much concerned about the nomination of Sandra Day O'Connor to the Supreme Court. I know the time has passed for you to have any influence on this nomination

since she has been nominated and name sent to the Senate.

I trust in the future there will be a more thorough investigation of a candidate's background. I am glad he nominated a woman but the philosophy of Mrs. O'Connor has much to be desired. Her record in the Arizona Senate shows she is very weak on family issues and does not share the views of the majority of Republicans elected in 1980.

If the Attorney General's Office is not capable of giving President Reagan a complete history of a candidate, I suggest you ask one of your staff members, that you trust, to give your facts and figures on the nominee.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter and wishing you and the White House staff the very best. You have a very difficult role to fill and we appreciate your talent and dedication.

Sincerely,

Mary M. Middlebrooks

Dear Mr. President:

Thank you for your very kind personal response regarding Justice Sandra Day O'Connor's appointment to the United States Supreme Court.

Today I received the mailing for the Republican Presidential Task Force chaired by Senator Robert Packwood.

Senator Packwood has played a leadership role in opposing all pro-life legislation and has been feted as the quest of honor at National Abortion Rights Action League functions.

Our political action committees will, of course, continue to work for the return of those incumbent senators who support the Human Life Amendment and for pro-life challengers for the seats held by abortion rights proponents.

I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation for your own commitment to the restoration of legal protection of innocent human life.

Dear Justice:

The President has asked me to send you the enclosed information and brochures on the World Vision Agency and the SOS Children's Villages.

Last week I had the pleasure of meeting your husband and attempted to show him some of the interesting historical items in the Oval Office (between many phone calls and interruptions). It wasn't until after he had left that Pete Roussel told me he was actually your husband -- he was introduced to me as Sandra Day O'Connor's sometimes tennis partner. I certainly hope your husband wasn't offended because I didn't acknowledge who he was, and you can be sure our mutual friend, Pete will never hear the end of this one from me.

April 21

Dear Mrs. Reagan,

John and I were very pleased to be invited to dinner on Tuesday in honor of Princess Alexandra and her husband. The gift of the Ditchley Bells to our country by Great Britain is a sensitive and thoughtful gesture on the part of that remarkable nation. It was very inspiring to talk to the Princess, Lord Howe and the wills about the presentation.

The evening was beautiful. You have made the White House look so lovely. The orchids and flowers were breathtaking. You and the President are so gracious and kind that it puts everyone at ease.

Thank you very much for the perfect evening, and for all that you do each day for the people of our country.

Dear Mr. President:

From the media, there is no doubt that you are aware not only of the generation gap, but also of the gender gap that exists within your administration - although I doubt that either will jeopardize your continuance in the Oval office.

In any event, having worked for Justice Sandra O'Connor in her re-election bid to our Arizona Senate, I am wondering if this judicial post is the limit of her governmental capabilities?

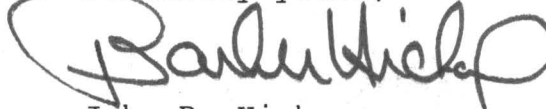

It would seem that her role could be expanded in several directions; of course only if the good Justice herself was so inclined, and the Republican Party felt that such a move was not "gilding the lily".

I mention the above only in the spirit of wanting the best for our government and our Country.

Sandra's early years on a ranch, and her love of nature's gifts would make her a worthy candidate to take Mr. Watt's place, and give her even more National exposure, as well as the administrative experience that is necessary for other political offices, including replacing the good Senator Goldwater when he retires or perhaps even as our FIRST Second Lady, even as Sandra was our First Judicial Lady.

Thanking you in advance for considering the above, I remain

Sincerely yours,

John B. Hickox

Dear Justice O'Connor:

You will recall that in 1983 I contacted you inviting you on behalf of the Women's City Club of Cleveland to receive their Wednesday's Woman of Achievement Award and to address that group. Copy of my previous letter to you dated August 8, 1983, is enclosed. You will recall that Mr. Robert E. Hughes, Chairman of the Cuyahoga County Republican Organization, also seconded this invitation.

On August 17, you replied stating that you were required to decline our invitation at that time because of the demanding workload during Court Term. I am hopeful that at this time you may be able to designate a date on which you would be available in either the coming Fall or Winter season to accept the award to which you are entitled, and that we may have the pleasure of meeting and hearing from you in the 1984-85 period.

The Judicial Group and Bar Associations of Greater Cleveland would also be invited to participate in the event you are able to set a date for us.

Very truly yours,
